Give your baby the best start possible

The safest choice for you and your baby is not to drink any alcohol during your pregnancy. This booklet has recipes for delicious non-alcoholic drinks, also called Mocktails. Try some out. If you don't have some of the ingredients on hand, make up your own recipes. Share your favourites with family and friends.

Healthy drinks for a healthy pregnancy

Pregnant women have additional reasons to think about what they eat and drink. Here are some tips for making healthy drinks for a healthy pregnancy:

- No alcohol
- Use no more than 4 oz. of juice per drink
- Use 100% juices, fruit nectars, fruit cocktails or fruit drinks
- Use frozen yogurt instead of ice cream
- Use 2%, 1% or skim milk instead of cream
- Use sparkling water (soda water) instead of pop
- Add pieces of fruit or vegetables to garnish
- Save drinks that are higher in fat, sugar or calories for special occasions

Be safe – no alcohol

Drinking alcohol during pregnancy can cause permanent birth defects and brain damage to your baby.

Is there a safe time to drink alcohol?

There is no safe time to drink alcohol during pregnancy. Your baby's brain is developing throughout pregnancy. In fact, it is best to stop drinking before you get pregnant.

Is there a safe amount of alcohol?

It is best not to drink any alcohol during your pregnancy. There is no known safe level of alcohol use during pregnancy.

Are some types of alcohol safe in pregnancy?

All types of alcohol can harm your baby (beer, coolers, wine, or spirits). Binge drinking and heavy drinking are very harmful to an unborn baby.
